BID Concept for Inline Alpine World Cup

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS & WORLD CUP VILLABLINO (Spain), 17th to 19th of August 2018

1 General Information

Villablino is a small town in the north-west of Spain (with about 10.000 people), in the province of León. It's located about 1.000 meters above sea level and surrounded by beautiful landscapes with mountains above 2.000 m. altitude.

In 2015, this town organized, with great success, one race of the Inline Alpine World Cup; in 2016, the Giant & Team Race World Championships and, also, the World Cup Final and Parallel Slalom; and, in 2017, it will host European Championships and, also, one race of the World Cup.

- Plastic barriers all along the track.

- Starting place should be cordoned off and/or surrounded with barriers, in such a way that it keeps booked for the race and public cannot come inside it.

- The finish area, containing the finish line and the deceleration zone, will be delimited with plastic barriers and with restricted access to the public. A stay ground, which is separated from the real finish area, will be arranged for those competitors who have finished the race as well.
